

Big sable point

It is located in Ludington, Mason, Michigan.

It was built in July 28, 1867.

Big sable point used to be red and white but now it's black and white.

The first lighthouse keep for big sable point was Alonzo Hyde, sr.

People used to severely vandalized big sable point in the 1940s.

Big sable point is the last Great Lakes lighthouse to get electricity.

Big sable point was first lit in November 1, 1867.

