

NORTH EAST

By Joey and ty

HERSHEY PENNSYLVANIA

- It used too have the Hershey factory.
- As of 2010 there were 14,260 people in Hershey
- Opened in 1894
- The Hershey bar was the first mass produced candy bar.
- We went to sample the chocolate.

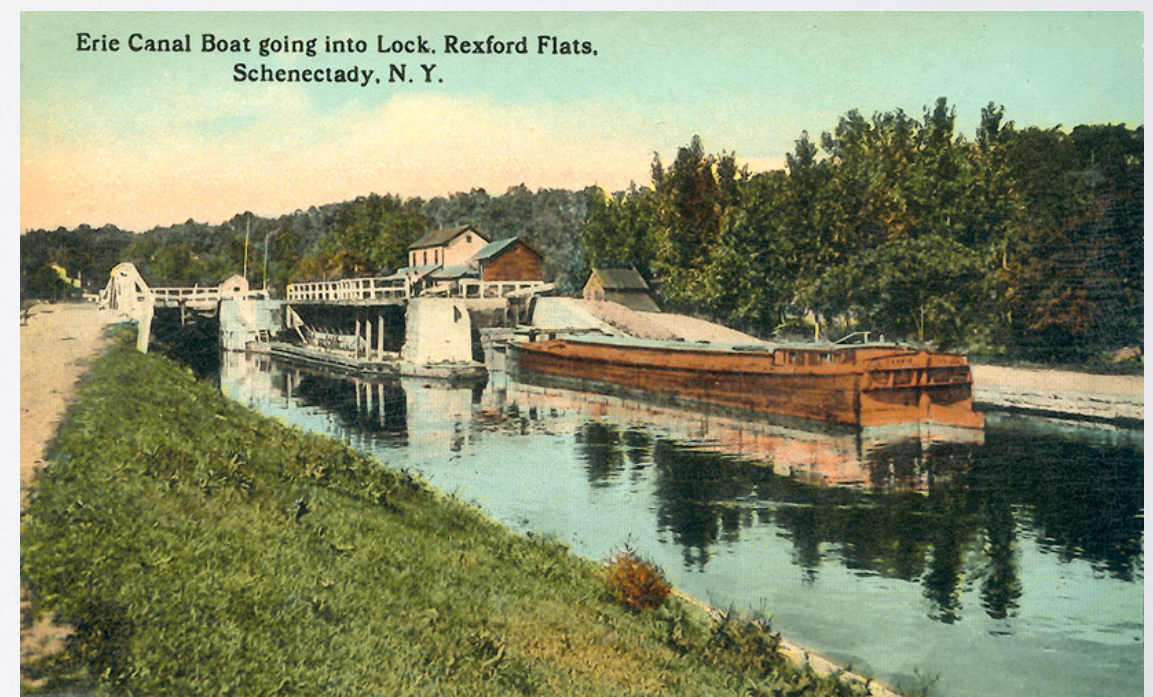

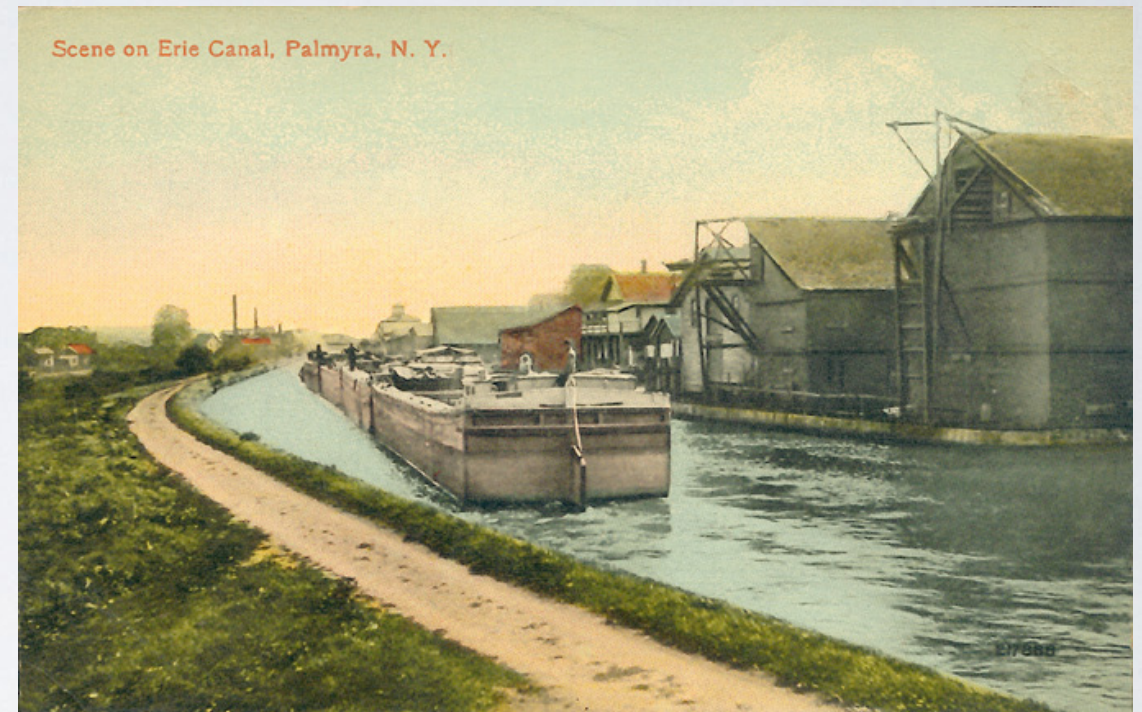

WHITE HOUSE

- The president lives there.
- George Washington selected the sight.
- It has 132 rooms 35 bathrooms 6 levels for the residents 412 doors and 8 stair cases 3 elevators 28 fire places.
- During the war of 1812 the British burned it down.
- We went to see the president.

ERIE CANAL

- The Erie Canal has 83 locks.
- It was finished in 1825.
- It originally was 363 miles long.
- It goes from New York to Great Lake.
- We went too see all the different fish.

STATUE OF LIBERTY

- Made of copper
- It is in Manhattan
- It is a welcoming signal.
- Has its own island.
- We went to see it on the forth of July.

CRAYOLA FRACTORY

- It's in Easton Pennsylvania.
- The 100 billionth crayon was made in 1996,
- Crayola makes art products.
- We went so we could see all the colors they have.
- Crayola products are sold 80 county's.

WASHINGTON MONUMENT

- The Washington monument is obelisk on the national mall.
- The began to build it in 1848.
- It stopped being built in 1854 to 1877.
- It was done in 1888.
- We went because we wondered how big it was.

SUPREME COURT

- It is the highest court.
- First court assembled in New York.
- Nine judges that judge in Supreme Court.
- It was created in accordance with article III.
- We went there we could see a case.

NEW YORK CITY

- New York City is one of the largest city's in the world.
- There are more than 26 thousand people living in each square mile.
- There is a birth every 4..4 minutes in New York City.
- We went because it has a lot of places there.

TIMES SQUARE

Formally named long-acre park.

The ball drops there.

Singers perform there each year.

We went there to see the ball drop.

INDEPENDENCE HALL

- It's in Philadelphia.
- It started being built in 1732
- It was completed in 1753
- We went there too see how older things looked.

